

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact:

Charissa Brinkman
Director, Marketing, Communications and Events
Email: charissa@liberty-collective.com
Phone: 513-808-2210

---

LIBERTY COLLECTIVE UNVEILS RESTAURANT LINEUP AHEAD OF SUMMER 2025 GRAND OPENING

LIBERTY TOWNSHIP, OH – April 2025 — Liberty Township residents and co-owners Mike and Heather Ewers are proud to announce the highly anticipated restaurant lineup for Liberty Collective, an 18,000-square-foot entertainment complex opening in early summer 2025. Conveniently located on 3.5 acres at 6735 Lakota Lane, directly across from Lakota East High School, Liberty Collective is poised to become a vibrant hub for dining, gathering, and entertainment in the heart of the community.

“We are so excited to share the restaurant names that will be part of Liberty Collective,” said Heather Ewers. “We interviewed more than 60 restaurants and are proud to bring a unique and exciting mix of concepts to Liberty Township. As residents ourselves, we are deeply committed to enriching our community with this project.”

The Liberty Collective Food & Beverage Experience

Liberty Collective will feature a curated selection of diverse culinary destinations:

- Bristol’s Burgers, Beef and BBQ
A bold, flavor-packed menu featuring double-decker cheeseburgers, smoked BBQ, spicy Italian beef, and award-winning smoked wings. Chef-owner Robert Viox, known for his Four Mile Pig restaurants, brings his passion and family legacy to life in this new venture—named after his granddaughter, Bristol.
- Rice Life
Chef Marcus Johnson puts a modern twist on teppanyaki, offering hibachi-style entrees crafted with premium ingredients and a whole lot of flavor. Expect showmanship and serious taste in every dish.
- Ramundo’s Pizza Famiglia
Ramundo’s brings authentic Italian flavor to Liberty Collective with classic and specialty pizzas (whole or by the slice), sandwiches, salads, homemade meatballs, and sausages. Founded in 2000 by brothers Gino and Tony Ramundo, the restaurant carries on a proud family tradition. After Gino's passing in 2006, Tony partnered with Neil Black to continue the legacy. Their new concept, Ramundo's Pizza Famiglia, features a uniquely crafted menu with pizzas named after Ramundo family members and made using cherished traditional recipes.

- Ms. Lei Lei's
Elevated comfort food where brined and hand-breaded chicken tenders take center stage, but fresh, chef-driven salads and hand-cut sides ensure there's something for everyone. Created by Chef Jarrod Ante, this spot delivers simple, fresh flavors done right.
- Roberto & Miguel's Handcrafted Mexican
Rooted in Guatemalan heritage, friends and chefs Miguel and Esteban deliver a flavorful menu filled with tacos, birria, asada fries, burritos, fresh guacamole, queso, and more—all made with love and the highest quality ingredients.
- Caladesi Island Coffee Co.
A tropical escape in a cup, opening daily at 6 a.m. with premium La Colombe coffee, island-inspired lattes, juice blends, fresh pastries, and locally sourced treats. Whether grabbing coffee to-go or staying to relax, Caladesi offers a peaceful oasis all day long.
- The District Creamery & Sweets
An ice cream lover's dream featuring hand-scooped favorites and award-winning flavors. From cones and sundaes to shakes, malts, and seasonal surprises, The District promises smiles with every scoop.
- Collective Pour
Liberty Township's first self-pour tap wall, features 30 rotating taps of craft and domestic beers, artisan cocktails, and fine wines.
- Lulu's Sweets Boutique
Located inside The District Creamery & Sweets, Lulu's Sweets Boutique is the creation of local baker Rosanna Ruwe, known for crafting the finest French macarons in town. Her menu also features scratch-made cakes, cookies, krispies, and brownies—all baked with premium ingredients to satisfy any sweet tooth.
- Caladesi Bourbon & Wine Tasting Bar
Opening at 4 pm, this sophisticated tasting bar offers curated bourbon, wine, and innovative spirit flights. Special tasting events will highlight rare and new selections for enthusiasts and newcomers alike.
- Main & Mezzanine Bars
Located on both levels of Liberty Collective, the Main and Mezzanine Bars serve up handcrafted cocktails, 24 rotating taps, and a full selection of traditional favorites—offering something for every taste, upstairs or down.

---

About Liberty Collective

Liberty Collective is an 18,000-square-foot multi-entertainment complex located on 3.5 acres in Liberty

Township, Ohio. Founded by residents Mike and Heather Ewers, the space brings together five restaurant concepts, a coffee and breakfast bar, an ice cream shop, and three bars—including a bourbon and wine tasting bar and a 30-tap self-pour beer wall. The venue features live entertainment, private event spaces, indoor/outdoor seating, one of the largest LED video screens in the tri-state, and a range of recreational amenities such as beach volleyball courts, cornhole, table tennis, and more. Year-round programming includes sports leagues, tasting events, and indoor golf simulators during the winter months. For more information, visit www.liberty-collective.com or follow along on Facebook, Instagram, and X.